

From the Editor - An equal world is an enabled world

I have borrowed the theme from International Women's Day 2020 for my heading in this issue as it is increasingly falling to women to help get us all out of this mess that the world has become.

That is not to negate the work of so many good men in the world, it is that women must, and increasingly are, bring their qualities and insight to this global battle for survival.

The battle has many fronts - political, environmental, moral, ethical, medical - indeed every aspect of life on earth is under seige and more than ever, the people of the entire world need to come together as without that combined strength - we will lose.
